

Guerilla Gardening Support Council Housing

Leigham Court is council run sheltered accommodation in Streatham. It used to have a brilliant garden that was much appreciated by its residents. Now Lambeth Council are neglecting the garden. This is part of a plan to demolish the place and sell it to property developers.

*This is what the garden looked like "before Lambeth started messing with it"
(credit: Kate Macintosh, the architect)*

Volunteers for Lambeth Housing Activists want to clean up the garden and show the council how public services should be run.

Saturday 22nd November 10am – 1pm
269 Leigham Court Road, SW16 2SB
<http://saveleighamcourt.wordpress.com>; 07412 050420

(This is an activist event. The aim of this event is to show what our garden could like if the council cared about the property rather than tried to demolish it. It is not to get volunteer labour to replace vital public services)